

The Heroes Centre is an exciting project being undertaken by the Scottish Charity, Helensburgh Heroes, to convert an old industrial warehouse into an Arts & Community Entertainment Centre. The project is expected to reach fruition by the summer of 2012.

A vision such as the Heroes Centre can only be delivered with the help and assistance of its supporters. Whether on your own or part of a community group, school or business, you can get help shape the future of the Heroes Centre.

Please complete this form if you would like to declare an interest in helping shape the future of the Centre. This form is not binding in any manner; it simply enables the Charity to gauge interest in the various support options available and allows us to contact you once the project moves forward.

Thank you for your interest!
